

<http://science.education.nih.gov/>

Name(s): _____

LifeWorks™ Scavenger Hunt

Your team's goal is to find as many of the following items on the LifeWorks™ website within a 15 minute time period. Write your answers on the lines provided.

1. The educational background of the Veterinary Technologist and Technician from the "Success Stories" section.

2. If you are interested in legal and management job categories, and you have "enterprising" interests, what are 2 possible careers you could have that match these interests?

3. The skills an Environmental Science and Protection Technician needs to succeed in his/her job.

4. The name of the highest paying job (on average) available for a person who only has a high school diploma.

5. The name of the highest paying job (on average) available for a person who completes a technical program.

6. The approximate number of people employed as athletic trainers in 2004. _____

7. What a biostatistician does.

8. If your content skills include active learning, active listening, mathematics, reading comprehension, science, speaking and writing, how many careers listed in LifeWorks™ are available to you? _____
9. The number of careers listed in the $61,000 - $80,000 per year salary range that do NOT require at least 2 years of college. _____
10. The estimated difference in median annual earnings between someone with only a high school diploma and someone who completed 4 years of college. _____
11. The two different parts of the typical workday in Angi Christensen's job.

12. Go to Career Finder. Under "Job Category" check the box for "Life, Physical, & Social Science." Click "next." How many careers match your selections? _____
13. Go to Career Finder. Check the "social" interest area, click "next" and check all process skill boxes. Click "next." How many careers match your selections? _____
14. Go to Career Finder: Check the "social" interest area, click "next" and check all process skill boxes. Click "next." What is the lowest-paying career listed in the results?

15. The tests a high school senior should register for or take in the early fall if preparing for college.

16. Greg Tate's job title and what subjects he was interested in during school.

17. The job outlook for a pharmacy technician: very good, good, poor, or fair
18. Barbara Biesecker's advice on choosing a career.

19. Abby Vogel's job title and median income.

20. Total number of careers listed that require a bachelor's degree or less. _____